Enhancement orthodontics: theory and practice (2007)

Author: Marc Bernard Ackerman
Publisher: Blackwell, Munksgaard, Oxford, UK
Price: £39.99
ISBN: 9-780813-826233

This orthodontic text is aimed at postgraduates and specialist practitioners.

The book deals very thoroughly with issues around communication in orthodontics and clinical aspects in examining different malocclusions. There is an interesting section, illustrated with a number of cases, on how malocclusions can be corrected. The strongest part of this book is in the front section dealing with communication in orthodontics.
