

European Society for Endodontology

Meeting of the Executive Board

The Executive Board of the ESE meet at least twice each year in order to conduct the business of the Society and to plan future activities. In recent years the meetings have been held most often in Tübingen, a small city in southern Germany and the home of Professor Claus Löst, the Secretary of the ESE. The last meeting of the Board was held on Friday and Saturday, 17 and 18 March 2006.

The business of the meeting included:

1. A review of the biennial congress in Dublin
2. An update of the biennial congress in Turkey to be held in September 2007 (<http://www.eseistanbul2007.org>)
3. Review of an inaugural meeting held the previous day with representatives from European dental companies in order to establish a dialogue with the aim of identifying opportunities for collaboration
4. The financial status of the ESE
5. The International Endodontic Journal
6. Discussions over the possible creation of an overarching world endodontic organisation that could co-ordinate activities between the regions represented by such societies as the ESE, Trans Pacific Endodontic Society etc.
7. Issues relating to membership
8. The ESE website (<http://www.e-s-e.org>)
9. The Quality Guidelines
10. Development of processes to recognise endodontic specialists
11. Future activities and developments of the ESE

The Executive Board Members include:

President – Gunnar Bergenholtz; Secretary – Claus Löst; Treasurer – Dag Ørstavik; Editor – Paul Dummer with support from the Administrative Secretary – Carmen Buckley. In attendance were Dublin Congress President and co-opted member – Lynda Elliot and colleague Maria Jennings and the Turkey Congress organisers represented by Işıl Küçükay and Hakki Sunay.
