

Editorial

This year sees the retirement of Professor Göran Dahllöf as The International Journal of Paediatric Dentistry Editor-in-Chief and Professor Helen Rodd as British Society of Paediatric (BSPD) Editor. Both have worked hard for the journal and Professor Dahllöf must be particularly congratulated for the ongoing improvement in the Impact Factor. Professor Chris Deery will become Editor-in-Chief and I hope you will join me in wishing him the best of luck over the next 5 years. I am sure he will continue to move the journal forwards.

The supplement is a little 'lighter' this year as the BSPD scientific meeting was combined with the European Academy of Paediatric Dentistry, meaning that there are no abstracts to print. I think that all who attended Harrogate, UK will agree that this was a well organised and generally excellent meeting. Congratulations must particularly go to the team at Leeds for their part in organising this.

I would personally like to thank Professor Rodd for all her work as BSPD editor and the help she has given me in this transition period. I am looking forward to the challenge and hope that I do not disappoint.

See you in Sheffield at BSPD in September.
